

ANDREW MILMAN

MANUFACTURING ENGINEER

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Manufacturing Engineer

Unicep Packaging | 2015 - 2018

- Prepared specifications and sourced new equipment
- Developed and documented Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs)
- Scheduled and managed third-party contractors, ensuring compliance with all company policies and procedures, and regulatory requirements
- Planned and executed the preventive maintenance program

Manufacturing Engineer

Spacecoast Cable & Harness | 2017 - 2019

- Forecasted production times, staffing requirements, and related costs
- Monitored processes based on first time quality (FTQ) and production time metrics to ensure operational targets are met
- Assisted in designing CNC machine tooling
- Assisted in designing manufacturing and quality control processes
- Improved manufacturing processes and methods for cost-reduction, quality improvement and efficiency

EDUCATION HISTORY

Northcentral University

Bachelor of Machining & Manufacturing

- GPA 3.7
- President, The Manufacturing Club
- Member, The Manufacturing Society
- Member, The Technical Crew

SUMMARY

Manufacturing engineer with experience improving quality, profitability and processes within the plastics injection molding manufacturing industry. Demonstrated ability to design for manufacturability and implement quality standards.

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

- Commercial awareness
- Teamworking
- Mathematics
- Quality Control Analysis
- Service Orientation
- Equipment Maintenance
- Management of Material Resources
- Social Perceptiveness
- Mechanical
- Self Control

GET IN TOUCH!

Landline: 123-456-7890

Mobile: 123-456-7890

Email:

hello@reallygreatsite.com

Website: reallygreatsite.com

Address: 123 Anywhere Street,
Any City