LPN

Dear Mr. Smith,

I am writing to apply for the position of Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) at Austin. I studied at Boston College with a degree in nursing. I have gotten the hang of nursing essentials and got escalated clinical involvement in my coursework. I am a self-inspired individual with distinct fascination for nursing. I will put my vitality and empathetic at the field of nursing.

I have cleared the state sheets and ensured to seek after a vocation as a Licensed Practical Nurse. I have incredible relational abilities in both oral and composed organizations. I have great clinical just as non-clinical aptitudes that will assist the patients with recovering at a quicker pace. I hold information of drug administering and patient consideration. I couldn't imagine anything better than to carry the abilities and enthusiasm to work for New Hospital.

I trust you discover my abilities coordinating to your necessities. Kindly don't waver to get in touch with me over call or email to timetable meeting at a helpful time for the two of us. Much obliged to you for surveying my application. I anticipate meeting you soon. Thank you for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,
Kellyanne Sanders
