Dear Brandon Wilson,

I would like to express my interest in the position of Mechanic in your company. I am drawn to your company because of your scale and my strategic vision of some very positive development prospects.

I am motivated individual with an extremely positive attitude to life. During my full time employment, I have an excellent attendance record and feel that my dedication would be a great asset to your organization.

I've been working as a mechanic since 2000. I have done machinery maintenance heavy machinery maintenance including: Diamond Z grinders, Volvo loaders, semi-trucks, tri-axle dump trucks, dump trucks, flat beds, forklifts, and air compressors. Maintenance included lubricating all grease points, changing the oil, changing the filters. I also kept track of when to do the oil changes on all the company trucks.

Experience has taught me how to solve problem, to commit to top-quality workmanship and high quality of customer service. I'm expertise in interpreting technical specifications; provide leadership to other mechanics to increase repair accuracy, minimize lost time, and ensure safety compliance.

I would appreciate the opportunity to meet with you to discuss how my qualifications make me ideally suited to the position. Thank you for your consideration.

Best Regards,
Omega Johnson
