Human Resource Manager

Mr. Matt Clarke

September 26, 2019

Dear Mr. Clarke,

When I discovered that your Company was hiring, I knew I had to apply.

I'm an engaging storyteller with a track record of writing appealing sports and news stories, which have been featured in numerous publications across the country and the Midwest.

I graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in journalism and social and cultural analysis from New York University.

Currently, I'm a freelance writer. My writing for a subscription-based digital news company (and mid-size daily newspaper) generates an average minimum of 3.5 million page views per year. 2,870+ stories published. I'm experienced in feature writing, blogging, daily story writing. Also, I have strong experience in research, finding sources, interviewing, SEO, writing on diverse topics, changing the tone to reflect the subject matter, facing daily deadlines, email handling. I can explain complex subjects in simple words.

I have received a significant number of honors and awards, including the Pulitzer Prize nomination.

I'm a Member of the largest proactive organization that educates, informs and supports the efforts of Human Resources professionals worldwide. I am also a member of local groups, SHRMA (Licking County) and HRACO (Franklin County).

I would appreciate the opportunity to meet with you to discuss how my qualifications make me ideally suited to the position. Thank you for your time.

Respectfully yours,

Wayne Bryan
