Waitress

Dear Mr. Potter,

I have found your job opening on ResumesBot.com for a Waitress position at ABC Restaurant with huge interest. So I am willing to apply to this job.

I have 12 years of waitressing background that reaches from working at a truck stop burger joint to a luxury restaurant. I have served big names and the destitute, flambéed fruits celebration tableside and poured unlimited cups of espresso just as $500 jugs of purpose.

Despite the cooking or demographic, I make it my main goal to serve visitors with politeness, make a majestic eating background and customer experience.

After many years of waitressing, I have created abilities in the better purposes of nourishment administration that are essential to ace however only sometimes instructed. A portion of my qualities include:

- Conveying stacked down serving plate with at least 8 entrées and beverages.
- Upselling wine, mixed drinks, tidbits, sweets and digestifs like no one's the same old thing.
- Slowing down tables when the kitchen is "in the weeds" or quickening table turnover when visitors are holding back to be situated – without making individuals feel dismissed or surged.
- Dealing with fragile or conceivably humiliating circumstances (e.g., declined charge cards, clothing regulation infringement, liquor administration cutoff, protests about the nourishment, intoxicated or antagonistic visitors).
- Greeting client, farewelling and solicitations to return in 5 dialects.

My bosses have said I am a most loved waitress among clients, because of my uplifting mood and responsibility to remarkable administration conveyance, and I am certain that I would be a profitable advantage for your food service business.

Thank you for your time and consideration!

Sincerely,
Rebecca Joly
