

Hi Sharlene,

Thank you so much for your consideration for a Web Developer position and a brilliant opportunity to work with your team. This is exactly the kind of challenge I have been looking for: great mission and the chance to put all my skills to the test and impact the team's success.

I hate to delay my official acceptance of the job offer from the EST, but I need a few days to discuss it with my spouse. Don't think me dis-considering the offer at hand, and I'm honored to get considered for it. Before making a major decision, I just want to make sure this amazing opportunity satisfies all my family's needs.

I do recognize that the company has deadlines and needs to fill the position asap. May I get back to respond at the latest by next Tuesday?

Thank you again for your time and consideration.

Warm regards,
Daniel.
