

AMELIA HARRIS

JOURNALIST

---

PROFILE

Recent graduate with a BS in Journalism from Emerson College. Awarded Dean's List two times. Had one semester of Erasmus Mundus at Aarhus University, Denmark. Member of Global Investigative Journalism Network non-profit organization. Seeks funds to pursue a Master's Degree in New York University. Planning to deepen my knowledge and work on "adapt to and shape" public understanding of complex news events projects.

CONTACT DETAILS

Phone: +1-098-765-4321

Email: amelia.harris@icloud.com

Address: 15 Arlington St Boston, v 02116

Academic affiliation: Emerson College

Date of Birth: 15 April 1998

EDUCATION

EMERSON COLLEGE

BACHELOR OF JOURNALISM, 2017-2019

GPA 3.9

Thesis title: Non-profit Investigative Journalism in the United States of America: Motives, Organizations, and Practices.

Favorite areas of study: Reporting and Editing Techniques, Developmental Psychology, Media Management, Broadcast News, Editing.

Key Achievements:

- Personal teacher assistant at Reporting and Editing Techniques.
- Dean's list in 2018 and 2019.
- Editor-in-chief of the university journal in 2018.

Awards:

- Dean's list 2019, Emerson College.
- Data Journalism Awards (US$1,801), Global Investigative Journalism Network, 2018.
- Dean's list 2018, Emerson College.

WORK EXPERIENCE

THE WASHINGTON POST

FREELANCE JOURNALIST, 2018 - 2019

- Create educational articles about little-known American intellectuals, researchers, scientists, politicians.
- Edit and provide fact-checking research for "my topic" articles submitted to The Washington Post.
- Maintain effective and productive professional relationships with identical media sources.
- Closely cooperate with reports, designers, editors, and producers on print and broadcast stories.
- Took portrait photographs.

SKILLS

- News
- Gathering
- Creating and Writing Stories
- Interviewing
- Photographing
- Ability to formulate unique ideas
- Perfect grammar
- Interpretation
- Versatility

LANGUAGES

- Spanish (Bilingual)
  - French (Advanced)
  - Polish (Conversational)
-